

Congratulations to Tom Fayle for being awarded the Otto Wichterle award, which is the Czech Academy's recognition to its top researchers below 35 years of age:

http://www.cas.cz/veda_a_vyzkum/oceneni/podpora-excelence/premie_wichterle/

Typically, there are about 25 awards accross all sciences and humanities every year, selected from the candidates submitted by individual research institutes. Tom is the only successful candidate from the three submitted by the BC for 2015.